Loving our neighbors near and far

October 22, 2022

Love is never stationary.
In the end, love doesn't keep thinking about it
or keep planning for it.
Simply put: Love Does.”

Bob Goff

Bob Goff

Founder, Love Does

Bob Goff is the author of the New York Times bestselling books Love Does, Everybody Always, Dream Big, and Undistracted. He is the Honorary Consul to the Republic of Uganda, an attorney, and the founder of Love Does—a nonprofit human rights organization operating in India, Uganda, Nepal, Somalia, Afghanistan, USA, Congo, Dominican Republic, Ukraine, Israel, and Burkina Faso. He's a lover of balloons, cake pops, and helping people pursue their big dreams. Bob continues to be inspired by friendships he's developed with others around the world who live their lives pursuing strategic ways to help others. You can typically find Bob writing and taking calls from his boat, welcoming people to The Oaks—his Southern California retreat center, or at an event speaking. Bob's greatest ambitions in life are to love others, do stuff, and, most importantly, to hold hands with his wife, Sweet Maria Goff, and spend time with their amazing kids and grandkids. Christi Paul

Master of Ceremony

After nearly 20 years at CNN and HLN, Christi Paul decided it was time to come home to Ohio. Now, you'll find her every evening anchoring the "What's Now" 5pm newscast for NBC affiliate WKYC-TV in Cleveland. She has covered and secured interviews in Presidential Elections, the Covid-19 Pandemic, and the Russian War on Ukraine. She was on the news desk walking viewers through the first 5 hours of the Newtown, CT school shootings as well as mass shootings at Virginia Tech, Pulse Nightclub in Orlando and the Uvalde, TX school shooting.

She's a wife and mother of 3 daughters and as such, has a passion for helping children and teens, as shown through her work as a member on the Advisory Board for Robin McGraw's "When Georgia Smiled", a foundation which helps victims of domestic violence and assault find healing, safety and joy and as founder of "Find Our Children"...a partnership with The National Center for Missing and Exploited Children in Washington, DC. She also served on the National Advisory Council for the One Love Foundation in honor of Yeardley Love, the University of VA Lacrosse player beaten to death by her boyfriend, and is involved with Girl Talk Inc, an organization where high school girls mentor middle school girls to help build self-esteem and combat bullying.

In 2012 NCMEC honored Christi with their prestigious Hope Award...an award she shares with past winners such as former Secretary of State Colin Powell, then-Senator Joe Biden and actor Ben Affleck. Christi is also an author. Her book "Love Isn't Supposed to Hurt", in which she speaks about overcoming verbal and emotional abuse, immediately hit Amazon's top 20 and she recorded two songs in Nashville that coincide with the book. "Wake Up In It" and "Free" can both be found on iTunes.

Megan Tibbits

Singer-Songwriter

Megan Tibbits is a singer and songwriter of inspirational Christian music, and a lifelong musical journeywoman. Born and raised in Michigan, not only in a musical family but in a touring family band, Tibbits traveled the country with the group for over ten years, singing on stage by age three, recording harmony vocals by age six, writing songs on guitar by age twelve, and learning piano, harp, oboe, and saxophone along the way. Upon moving to Los Angeles, Tibbits appeared before a national TV audience of ABC's Rising Star, where she advanced to the top 13. She began making YouTube and Instagram videos that gained the attention of artists such as Jennifer Lopez, Alicia Keys, Jonathan McReynolds, Tauren Wells, and Brandon Lake, where she went on to sing and write with McReynolds, and arranged acoustic versions of songs for Lopez to perform on Award Shows and other public performances (i.e. AMA Awards, The 2021 Presidential Inauguration, Global Citizen, etc.) In 2020, Tibbits appeared on FOX's I Can See Your Voice as "The Harpist". Most recently, Megan toured with New York Times Best Selling Author Bob Goff, appeared on tour, and on the Dove Awards stage singing with Gospel Artist Jonathan McReynolds, and led worship with artist Brandon Lake at Seacoast Church.

Lauren Daigle

Singer-Songwriter

Lauren Daigle is a two-time GRAMMY®, seven-time Billboard Music and four-time American Music Award winner. Her platinum debut album, How Can It Be, produced three number one songs, “First,” “O’Lord” and the GRAMMY® nominated “Trust in You.” But it was her 2x platinum sophomore release Look Up Child that broke geographic and musical boundaries, revealing Daigle as one of the most impressive vocalists of our time.

Look Up Child, which earned Daigle her second GRAMMY® Award, debuted at No. 3 on the Billboard Top 200 Album chart and has spent 100 weeks at No. 1 on her genre’s chart, a record across all Billboard album charts. It featured her 5x-platinum and GRAMMY® Award winning smash “You Say,” the longest-running No. 1 song to appear on any weekly Billboard Hot chart and marked personal milestones including multiple weeks atop Billboard’s Adult Contemporary chart, a Top 5 position on its Hot AC Chart and a Top 20 position on Billboard’s Top 40 Singles Chart. The album also produced the platinum selling singles “Rescue” and “Look Up Child” and gold certified single “Still Rolling Stones.” Her latest gold certified single, “Hold On To Me,” marks Daigle’s fifth No. 1, adding to her lead of the most No. 1s among women in the genre.

Daigle’s ability to connect with her audiences is well-supported by a billion worldwide streams and sold-out headline shows on three continents - in countries including Australia, Germany, England, France, Canada, and the United States.

In 2018, Daigle established the Price Fund, a global foundation dedicated to helping those in need through community initiatives and outreach. The Price Fund has worked with the Ellis Marsalis Center, Young Audiences of Louisiana Charter School, Roots of Music, Kid Smart, and The New Orleans Center for Creative Arts.

Ryan O'Neal

Singer-Songwriter

Sleeping At Last is the moniker of singer-songwriter, producer and composer, Ryan O'Neal. His music is often heard on TV and Film (Grey's Anatomy, The Twilight Saga, The Fault In Our Stars, American Idol, as well as ads for Mercedes, McDonalds, Ralph Lauren, Budweiser and more.) After many years of making full-length albums and touring, Sleeping At Last began writing long-form series of songs: "Astronomy" (songs inspired by the macro), "atoms" (songs inspired by the micro) and "Atlas" (songs inspired by the human experience in between). Ryan lives just outside of Chicago with his wife, Cayt, and their two little girls, Lily and Iris.
